

Conjure Up Your Intention Day 9

Welcome to day 9!

This is the final day of conjuring and moving into a finished product of intention.

You are invited to sit and create an intention today.

This can be as simple or as complex as you wish it to be...

Using words such as "I am" and "I have", bringing it into the present and feeling the emotion into your intention will really help.

Remember, you are conjuring, and the principles of magic are...

- Imagine it
- Emotionally Charge it
- Name it.

Feel it, with as much emotion as possible

Believe it

See it

And so it is.

Provided is a bonus meditation to help you connect.
